PLDT AND JGS extend closing date

MANILA, PHILIPPINES: 30TH June 2011 - Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT) and JG Summit Holdings, Inc. agreed to extend the closing date of the transaction under the Sale and Purchase Agreement dated March 29, 2011 from June 30, 2011 to July 30, 2011.

PLDT's Chairman, Manuel V. Pangilinan, said: "The parties remain committed to this deal since it stands to bring substantial benefits not only to the shareholders but also to the consumers and the general public who will all benefit from the combined resources and expertise of the PLDT Group and Digitel. In the end, this means higher quality services being made available to a wider market at affordable prices."

JG Summit's Chairman, Mr. James L. Go, on the other hand, also expressed optimism: "We are confident that soon, the consumers of Sun will reap the benefits of a stronger and more robust telecommunications company resulting from the PLDT-Digitel deal."

About PLDT

PLDT is the leading telecommunications provider in the Philippines. Through its three principal business groups – fixed line, wireless, and information and communications technology – PLDT offers a wide range of telecommunications services across the Philippines' most extensive fiber optic backbone and fixed line and cellular networks.

About Digitel

Established in 1987, Digitel is one of the major providers of wireline communication systems in Luzon. In 2003, Digitel entered the wireless communications business through the Sun Cellular brand and has since then been recognized as one of the fastest-growing wireless communications providers in the country, with 14 million wireless subscribers as of the end of 2010. Through Sun Cellular, Digitel is able to expand its portfolio of telecommunications services to include wireless voice and internet together with its array of fixed-line telephony products. Digitel is listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange and is a subsidiary of JGS.

About JGS

JGS is the listed holding company of the Gokongwei family, one of the country's foremost business groups. JGS has a diversified portfolio of businesses spanning aviation, banking, consumer goods manufacturing, petrochemicals, real estate, and telecommunications. It is a member of the Philippine Composite Index, and has a market capitalization of ₱166.5 billion as of 28 March 2011.
